Airport projects take off

By AMANDA WILSON
ANP Staff Writer

Detroit Metropolitan Airport modernization projects are taking off without a hitch.

According to reports put together by airport officials, on-going projects are going as planned and future projects are expected to be started on schedule.

"Everything's going well or better than expected," said Wayne County Executive Edward McNamara.

There are currently 12 major projects under construction at Metro and seven scheduled to begin in the near future.

Although officials believe each project necessary, McNamara said the most important at the moment is the building of the south access road.

Already under construction, the project is considered an integral part of the of the package of improvements at the airport. It is designed to allow airport access from the south to east. The entry point will be located off Eureka Road between Wayne and Merriman roads. It will run through the airport property, tunnel under two runways and end up above ground at the proposed new terminal.

"It is the key to expansion of the airport," McNamara commented.

The project is expected to cost in excess of $115 million. Although complete funding for the project has not yet been acquired, money to begin the project was won by Congressmen William D. Ford and John D. Dingell and McNamara anticipates money will be available when it is needed again.

"I don't anticipate any problems," he said.

Other projects now under construction include: a new air traffic control tower; a new rescue and firefighting facility; an aircraft maintenance complex and a 3,200-space parking deck.

Future projects include: a new crosswind runway; a fourth parallel runway; an airfield lighting and monitoring project; stormwater control improvements and the design and construction of a new terminal complex.

The projects are expected to cost in excess of $1 billion.

"These improvements are a part what I consider the most important project in southeast Michigan," McNamara said.

Firemen welcome residents

In an effort to promote Fire Prevention Week, Romulus fire officials will be hosting an open house Oct. 6.

Each of the four Fire Stations in Romulus will be open to the public from noon to 4 p.m. and officials would like to invite everyone to come and see what life is like for firemen.

"Stop in and say 'Hi' to your local firefighters," said Fire Chief William Greenslaid.

New contract may guarantee quicker response from police

By AMANDA WILSON
ANP Staff Writer

Police and city officials shook hands on an agreement designed to promote peace throughout Romulus last week.

After more than a year of deliberation, Romulus Police cadettes, dispatchers and officers signed a new contract which will allow more patrol cars on the streets at night.

"There was a series of about six different drafts written up on this contract and we're happy to say that arbitration wasn't needed and the officers passed the agreement 27 to 20," said operations Lt. Eric Painter.

The small margin of consent was due to what Painter calls the biggest benefit of the new contract. It states that officers will now be allowed to operate one-man units after dark, a topic that originally caused officers to voice concern.

"Some were worried that it would make the job more dangerous, but that won't be the case," Painter said. "We wouldn't send them out if they weren't properly prepared."

So a re-education process will be taking place. Dispatchers will be learning the importance of prioritizing calls, while officers are trained on defense tactics and the importance of waiting for back-up whenever necessary.

"We'll be teaching them how to do the right thing for their own protection," Painter said.

The officers will also be equipped with more personal weapons.

"Chemical agents will be attached to the belt alongside the handgun and telescoping baton, and we'll be sure the officers know what to do in any given situation."

Once the training process is complete and the one-man patrols begin, residents may notice more patrol cars on the

Man charged with negligent homicide

By JOAN DYER-ZINNER
ANP Staff Writer

A preliminary examination was slated yesterday for a Romulus man charged with negligent homicide in the July 21 death of a Belleville man.

Matthew Patrick Kelly, 28, of Romulus was arraigned in 34th District Court in connection with the death of Herbert Hoerig Jr., 24, of Belleville. Results of the examination were not available at press time.

Hoerig was walking on Hagerty road, near McBride Street, in Van Buren Township when he was struck by a pickup truck driven by Kelly. Hoerig later died of severe head injuries which he suffered in the incident.

Both men were drinking at the same bar, located near the site of the accident, prior to Hoerig being struck by the pickup truck, but police said the two men did not know each other.

Blood alcohol tests taken by Kelly indicated that he was legally drunk at the time of the accident. Kelly was taken into custody by Van Buren Township police and charged with driving under the influence of alcohol. He was released later the same day.

Results of the examination will determine whether Kelly will face trial in Wayne County Circuit Court on felony charges. If convicted on the charges, Kelly could be sentenced to up to two years in prison and fined $2,000.

Schools count down to a better future

By AMANDA WILSON
ANP Staff Writer

Although the fourth-Friday count showed enrollment is down in Romulus Community Schools, the future is looking brighter.

Because of the recent technological advances brought into the district, officials believe an increase in enrollment may be inevitable.

"The school district is always a major draw to people with children who are looking to settle in an area," said Terrel M. LeCesne, assistant superintendent for administrative services. "As our district continues to improve, we're sure to attract new comers."

The improvements came thanks to the selling of a $45 million bond issue which allowed school officials to purchase 1,200 computers and other advanced systems. The computers have already been installed in Wick Elementary and Barth and Hale Creek elementary schools will see the same improvements before the end of the year.

"With just the improvements we've done so far, we've already become a very attractive school system to neighboring districts and with the new technology and innovations, we're sure to become more attractive," LeCesne said.

In the meantime, the school continues to support 4,080 children, 62 less than last year. Although this count is usually done the fourth Friday after Labor Day each year to determine how much state aid will be needed for each particular school district state-wide, this is not the case for Romulus.

After recently climbing out of the depths of poverty (in formula), and becoming one of the "new rich" school district (out-of-formula), Romulus is no longer eligible for general state aid.

"We can now support ourselves through taxes so the fourth-Friday count is done now just for us to account for the kids," said LeCesne. "We did expect it to be down this year but we look forward to the future and better things to come."

Police designate October run route

By MARGO DEWEY
ANP Suburban Editor

The official route for the Oct. 5 Annapolis Hospital Red October Run is set, and Wayne police officials are asking residents to assist with making the event a success by following the various access points designated for entering and exiting the race.

The run will begin at 10 a.m. and is expected to be completed by 11:30 a.m., according to Wayne police Lt. Dan Randall.

"We ask that residents enter or leave their neighborhoods by using the certain access points," Randall said. "We are also asking the residents of Biddle, Winslow, Carnegie and the east side of Howe Road not to park their vehicles in the street between 9 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. the day of the race."

The event will consist of an 8-kilometer run and a 2-mile walk in Wayne, according to Cynthia Cook, occupational health services representative for Annapolis.

"We anticipate 500 runners and a total start to finish time of 75 minutes, maximum," Cook said.

Besides unique age-group awards, T-shirts, a raffle and food will be available at the event as well as blood pressure, blood sugar and cholesterol screening. Participants are from all over Michigan.

OAKWOOD WOMEN AND CHILDREN'S HEALTH CARE CENTER

"I'm Thirty Eight, In Excellent Health, and Pregnant Again.

This Time
Might Not Be So Easy.

That's Why I Chose
Oakwood."

"Being an older mom doesn't mean my baby and I are necessarily at risk, but that doesn't mean I should ignore the possibility either. So after talking to my physician, I went to the Oakwood Women and Children's Health Care Center. They're equipped to handle high-risk deliveries, premature infants, and other special-needs babies, and their Neonatal Intensive Care Unit is staffed by highly specialized physicians around the clock. But what's more important is the quality pre-natal care and attention that's available for me and my baby from caring experts able to detect possible risks early, and provide the appropriate care. Having a baby isn't easy at any age, and that quality of care makes us both feel better."

This year, more than 5,000 babies will be delivered at the Oakwood Women and Children's Health Care Center, a Level III perinatal center that's part of the Oakwood health care system, one of the largest health care systems in Michigan, with six hospitals, more than 30 local health care and specialty centers and more than 1,000 physicians. Fire won't wait, plan your escape

"Fire Won't Wait - Plan Your Escape" is the focus of Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 6 to 12. Next week commemorates the 120th anniversary of the great Chicago fire which killed 250 persons, destroyed 17,400 buildings and left 100,000 homeless. Since the first Fire Prevention Week was proclaimed by President Warren Harding in 1922, leaders of the state and nation have continued the annual observation to inform citizens of the dangers of fire and to educate them on steps to prevent future tragedies.

In 1990, 53,301 fires, resulting in 242 deaths, were reported in Michigan. Of the total structural fires last year, 67 percent were home fires and 91 percent of the resulted deaths occurred in the home, according to the Michigan Fire Chiefs Association.

The large number of home fires have prompted state and local fire officials to direct their attention to encouraging the use of smoke detectors and establishing a home fire escape. In recent years, the National Fire Protection association has sponsored its Exit Drills in the Home program which focuses on installing and maintaining smoke detectors as a early warning system and developing and practicing a home fire escape plan.

Fire chief and public safety directors from Wayne, Westland, Romulus, Inkster, Canton Township and the Belleville area and heading up local efforts to bring inform adults and youngsters about fire safety.

Local fire fighters offer safety tips

Deputy Fire Director Wayne Bennett

ANP Suburban Editor

It's a simple saying, but if families follow the advice, lives could be saved.

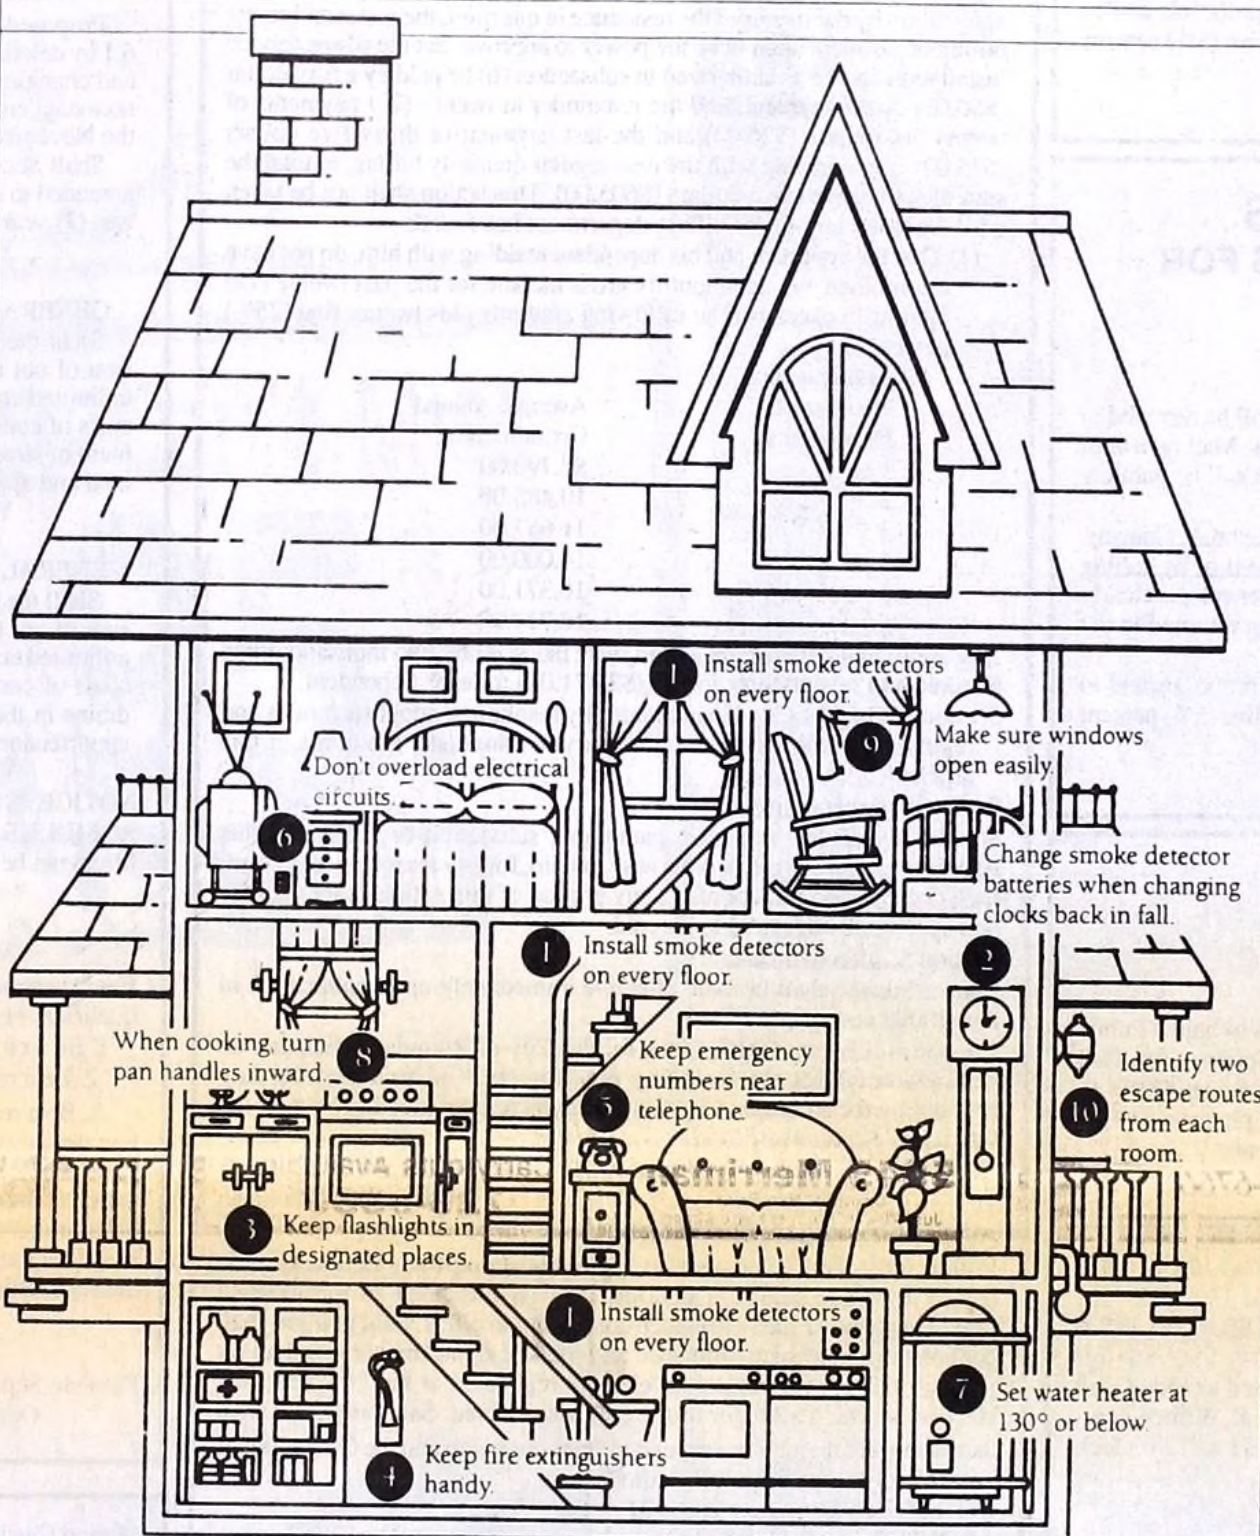

Next week is fire prevention week, and the theme this year is: "Fire don't wait-plan your escape." Deputy Fire Director Wayne Bennett is encouraging all Wayne residents to have a fire escape plan and practice that plan periodically.

"Everyone should know at least two ways of escaping the house," Bennett said. "A meeting place should also be established when you get out of the house."

Wayne residents should install a smoke detector on every floor of the house, according to Bennett.

"The ideal thing would be to have a smoke detector on the outside of every sleeping area," Bennett said. "You should also check the batteries on the detectors when you change the time on the clock in the fall and in the spring."

Other helpful fire tips include: Keep cooking areas clear of combustibles, don't leave food unattended, keep matches away from children and check all electrical cords for cracks or fraying.

Fire Marshall Robert Perry

By PATRICIA BROWN
ANP Deputy Editor

National Fire Prevention Week should be remembered as an time to check the batteries in household smoke detectors, according to Westland Fire Marshall Robert Perry.

"This week is a good time to annually check batteries in smoke detectors," Perry said.

And since school is in session during National Fire Prevention Week, Perry said it is a good time to remind students about fire safety and to give them some fire safety tips.

"Teachers and parents can sit them down and talk to the child about an escape plan and a place for family members to meet," Perry said. "This is important so that nobody runs back into the house, thinking that someone from the family is still in there."

This is how many deaths fire related deaths occur, according to Perry.

Each year Westland firefighters lead school children through the fire safety house. After instructing them how to react if a fire was to occur, a simulated fire is created within the house and the students have the opportunity to practice escaping a fire.

As far as Romulus Fire Chief William Greenslait is concerned, nothing can fight a fire better than awareness.

That's what he loves about Fire Prevention Week.

"This is the one time of the year that everyone's attention is brought to the dangers of fire and we like to take advantage of it," Greenslait said.

This year, Romulus firemen will take the opportunity to educate elementary school children on fire safety. Firemen will begin touring schools next week with Ronald McDonald to let kids know that awareness and safety could save lives.

"Each year, there's a large loss of lives and property due to fires," Greenslait said. "If everyone would take the time to inspect their homes and remain aware, these figures could drop and lives could be saved."

He suggests that residents take a look throughout the home to be sure that electrical plugs are not overloaded, that electrical cords are not in need of repair and that smoke detectors are in working order.

Belleville City Editor

During Fire Prevention Week, the emphasis of the Van Buren Public Safety Department will be on fire escape plans, said Director Mark Perkins.

"It is important for parents to sit down with their children and plan how to escape from a fire. After the plans are made, fire drills should be conducted at least twice a year," Perkins said. "Everyone in the family should be aware of two ways out of each room, and should practice using each escape route."

"It is important to get out quickly and to meet at a pre-arranged location. Once out of the burning structure, individuals should not return for any reason," the public safety director said.

After everyone has evacuated the structure, the fire department should be called. Each family member should know how to call the fire department.

"Children should be taught that matches and lighters are not toys, and adults should keep their smoking materials stored safely," Perkins said. "Even the youngest children can understand that they must go outside whenever they smell smoke, hear a smoke detector alarm or see a fire where it doesn't belong," Perkins said.

The Canton Fire Department and the Canton Chamber of Commerce are sponsoring Fire Prevention Week Oct. 6-12. The theme this year is "Fire Won't Wait: Plan Your Escape."

In keeping with the theme, Fire Marshall Art Winkel offered advice to local residents. "The most important fire safety tip is evacuation of the house. I encourage residents to plan an escape, if they don't have one, make one up."

The Canton Fire Safety House offers a unique means for planning such an escape. The 25-foot mobile classroom lets children experience a fire-like situation in a house environment. A non-toxic smoke machine fills the trailer with dense, white smoke. Children are taught to crawl on the floor to escape the effects of the smoke and experience crawling through a window. The house is available to groups and local schools for demonstrations.

To date, 1,400 children have been through the house since it became operational in May.

To mark Fire Prevention Week, tours of the fire station have been scheduled from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily. For an appointment, call 981-1113.

Fire safety is a year-around job, stressed Edgar Frazier, Inkster deputy fire chief.

"You read about it daily in the newspapers how a life or a family was wiped out and could have been saved if their smoke detector had been operational," Frazier said. "But it wasn't, and the person becomes a statistic."

"Tragedy and loss of property can be avoided by taking a few minutes to check batteries in the detectors," Frazier continued. "If they are dead, change them. Make sure your smoke detectors work. You may have heard the saying a hundred times before, but it's true - that the life you save may be your own."

Frazier also wished to remind residents to:

- Test your smoke detector once a month and replace the batteries regularly;
- Make sure all family members know what the smoke detector sounds like so they will not hesitate to exit the building when they hear its warning sound;
- Teach even your youngest children that they need to get outside whenever they smell smoke, see a fire where it doesn't belong or hear the smoke detector.

streets and a quicker response time.
“Now if there’s an emergency, non-emergency calls have to wait until a patrol car is clear before they get response,” Painter said. “With twice as many cars on patrol, we’ll be able to respond better in both situations.”

Training will begin immediately for the patrolmen and Painter expects the station to be prepared for one-man pat-

He said he hopes that more patrol vehicles on the road reminds criminals that they’re on the watch.
“They’ll see more of us which will remind them we have reservations for them in lock-up and hopefully discourage them from committing future crimes in the city of Romulus,” Painter said.

Father charged with abuse

By PATRICIA BROWN
ANP Deputy Editor

A Westland man accused of sexually abusing his 16-year-old daughter has been ordered by the court to stay away from his family, according to Sgt. Laura Moore of the Westland Police Department.

Roger Stewart Martz, 43, was charged with two counts of first-degree criminal sexual conduct and two counts of second-degree criminal sexual conduct last month, Moore said.

Last week Martz appeared at a preliminary examination before 18th District Court Judge Gail McKnight who increased his bond to $20,000.

"The bond was raised at the hearing because he violated his previous bond which stated he was to have no contact with the family," Moore said. "They're all witnesses and the reason he is contacting them is to put pressure on his family."

The girl came to police Aug. 8 and a warrant was issued for the arrest of Martz Aug. 23,

Moore said. Before going to the police she confronted her mother with the story, who then told her to confront her father, according to Moore.

"When she told her mother, she told her to tell her father, and he punched her in the face," Moore said. "We know her mother was aware of it for at least a year."

The girl told police that she had been forced to perform oral sex on her father and to undergo other sexual acts, Moore said.

Two older sisters have also admitted to being sexually abused by their father, according to Moore.

Martz is scheduled to appear at Recorder's Court Oct. 10.

Prizes awarded to area shoppers

After receiving more than 3,000 entries from area readers, three lucky western-Wayne County residents were randomly selected as the winners of the Summer Getaway Contest sponsored by the Associated Newspapers and 18 area merchants.

Readers were notified about the contest July 25 in the Summer Getaway section and had until Aug. 31 to submit their entry forms at any of the locations mentioned in the section.

"The contest was very successful," said Lisa Stuart, retail advertising manager for Associated Newspapers. "We plan on doing it again next year."

Some merchants reported having so many entries that the boxes were overflowing, Stuart said.

"The best part about the contest was that it brought customers into the stores," Stuart said. "With more than 3,000 entries, we felt it was a good response."

The three lucky winners included: first-place winner Carlene Worthy of Westland, who won a trip to Las Vegas; second-place winner Mary Ann Porter of Melvindale, who won two nights at Springbrook Hills and Donald Polich of Westland, who won two nights at Country Hearth Inn, in Canton Township.

More Detroit suburban savers and investors

The SPRING Newspapers' circulation more than doubles the daily suburban circulation of either The Detroit News or Free Press.

In fact, SPRING's suburban circulation is greater than the two metro dailies' combined.

And that's not all.

According to the 1991 Belden study, SPRING reaches more of the affluent suburban shoppers who have more—and spend more.

► 151,800 more suburban savings account users than the daily News (68,100 more than the Free Press).

► 109,000 more suburban NOW account users than The News (41,000 more than the Free Press).

► 121,700 (and 31,900) more suburban investors.

Not to mention more suburban buyers of new cars, boats, jewelry, $200,000+ homes, etc.

TRAVEL TIPS

If you've never flown business or first class, you can't imagine the difference between these premium services and an economy seat, especially on a full flight. Unless you've asked, you probably can't imagine the difference in cost either!

Many business travelers now use the higher class of service when they intend to work shortly after arrival at their destination or when the flight time exceeds a certain number of hours. Companies have determined that the additional cost is worth the increased productivity made possible by the ability to work on the flight or to arrive more relaxed because of the additional comfort.

Business class usually has two seats on each side of the cabin as well as one or two additional rows of seats in the center. There are no middle seats like those found in economy. On some jumbo jet flights, business class is located upstairs where the first class lounge used to be. Seats are wider than economy, drinks and earphones are free and there's usually a choice of menu which is more elaborate than in economy.

First class is, of course, even more luxurious. Some seats recline and food and service are ultra deluxe. Your meal is served in courses on fine china and might include such items as shrimp cocktail, lobster, rack of lamb or prime rib carved to order from the cart rolled to your seat.

Want to know the difference in price? Ask us next time you fly.

Newborns
have always been a handful.

These days, "crack" babies are lucky to be born even that big.

This year more babies will be born, premature and underweight, to "crack" cocaine-addicted mothers.

You may have seen photographs of "crack" babies. It's not such a pretty picture. Imagine what it must be like to work in one Metropolitan Detroit maternity ward where, on average, one in ten babies is born addicted to drugs.

Now more than ever, the United Way needs your donation to help fund local organizations with programs to help pregnant addicts quit drugs. Your contributions also support the over 150 agencies close to home working, among other things, to fight child abuse, provide family counseling and shelter the homeless.

So when you give, give big to the United Way Torch Drive. Consider it an investment in the future of the American family.

Give a little piece of your heart. IT'S NEEDED MORE THAN EVER

Little miracle: Robichaud pulls out victory in final seconds

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Defending Class B state champ Robichaud needed a "little miracle" to salvage its game with arch-rival Oak Park. And Coach Bob Yauck's Bulldogs got it in the final seconds thanks to Gary Phillips, who recovered a Oak Park fumble in the end zone that lifted the champs to a 14-7 victory over their Suburban Athletic Conference opponents.

"We came within 34 seconds of our first defeat in 16 games," said Yauck, whose team has a perfect 4-0 record. "Phillips' recovery saved the day, and believe me, we're thankful."

Oh, by the way, Phillips also scored the two-point conversion after contributing the go-ahead TD.

With the tough Parkers out of the way, Robichaud has the dubious honor of playing a wounded River Rouge. The Panthers were upset by Highland Park last week and the Friday afternoon encounter with the champs is viewed as their "last chance".

"They (Rouge) know they can't afford to lose to us and realistically remain in the title race," Yauck said. "This is their last hope. Their last chance."

It almost became that for the Bulldogs. After failing to get on the scoreboard in the first three quarters against Oak Park, Robichaud broke the ice again thanks to Phillips' alertness. He recovered an Oak Park fumble on the Redskins' 8-yard line and with 8:07 left, Mike Orsetti scored from the 2 to give the Bulldogs a 6-0 lead.

Tom Massey attempted but failed to convert.

Then, with 5:56 left, the Redskins rallied around quarterback Robert Powell who burned the Bulldog secondary with a direct hit to receiver Brian Elford. That 50-yard, pass-run touchdown, tied the score. Powell's boot gave the Redskins a 7-6 edge.

It stood that way until Phillips came up with the miracle.

Oak Park defense held the usually productive Robichaud ball carriers to a mere 138 yards. Orsetti had 96 of those on 21 carries. Massey connected on four of 14 passes for an additional 60 yards. However, to all fairness to the young QB, some of his passes were right on target - his receivers weren't.

Salem shoots down Rockets

By TERRY LYNCH
ANP Special Writer

With the accuracy of a Patriot missile honing in on a scud, Plymouth Salem zeroed in on the Rockets of Westland John Glenn and shot them down Friday night before a Glenn homecoming crowd.

The Salem 28-7 victory over the previously undefeated Rockets was engineered by Rock senior tailback Leon Hister, who said he "had waited three years for this victory."

Rolling up 248 yards and three touchdowns on 33 carries, Hister single-handedly accounted for over half of the Salem 434 yards of offense.

"He's just an outstanding runner and when he gets the kind of blocking that he got, you just can't stop him," said Glenn coach Chuck Gordon.

The Rockets offense rolled up its share of yards, but that came in the initial stages of the conference duel. Glenn took the opening kickoff, ran five plays and ended up in the end zone on a 39-yard sprint by senior tailback Tad Quattlander.

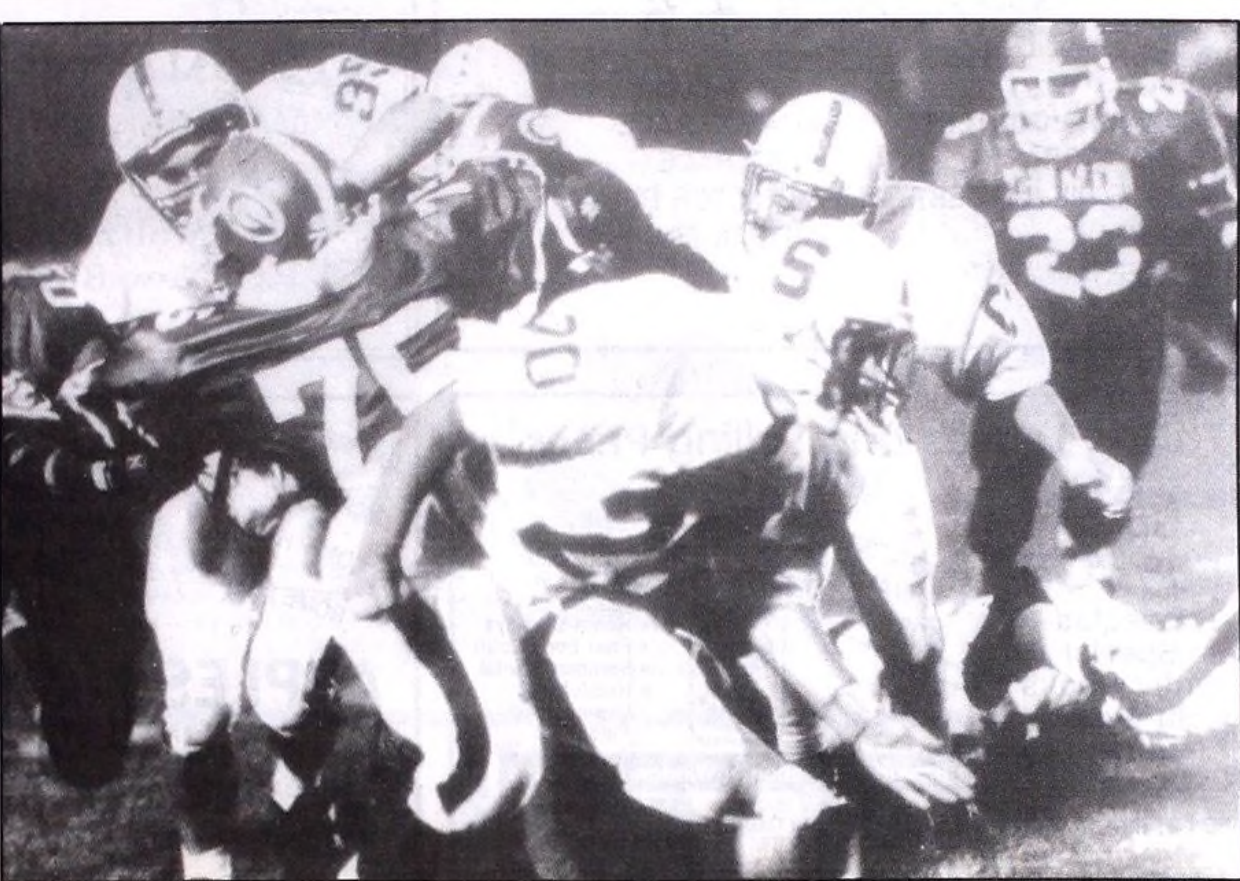

Before the evening ended, Quattlander accounted for 142 yards.

But the momentarily stunned Rocks came right back with an impressive 87-yard drive of their own that Hister polished off with his first TD of the evening, a 28-yarder.

With the score tied, Glenn next chance stalled. But a punt left Salem in the hole and on their own 12-yard line.

Using Hister as their hammering rod, the Rocks pounded the Rocket defense. They moved to the Glenn 5-yard line thanks to an excellent breakthrough by Dan Burkes, who picked up a 49-yard gain almost untouched.

Salem quarterback Pete Zantop took it from there and scored on an option, lifting the visitors to a 14-7 lead after a successful point-after.

In the second quarter, big plays gave way to long sustained drives.

Glenn miscued in its own territory, coughing up the ball to Salem. But the Rockets dodged a bullet as the Rocks reciprocated on the next play.

Neither team could score for the remainder of the half, leaving the Rockets down 14-7 as the Glenn homecoming festivities got under way.

The Rocks opened the second-half with a time-munching, ground-chewing drive that lasted over half of the quarter and ended with Hister punching in on a 1-yard run on a fourth-down.

With Salem up 21-7, the Rockets continued to move the ball but couldn't finish their drives.

Glenn piled up 300-total yards but had only seven points to show for their sweat.

Midway through the last quarter, Hister drove the final nail with a 44-yard trip that terminated in the end zone.

Gordon had praise for both teams.

"We feel that we are a better team than we showed tonight," he said. "But that's not to take away anything from Coach Tom Moshimer's fine team. Salem played an outstanding game here tonight."

In the beginning it looked easy - Glenn took the opening kickoff and rammed it across the field into the Salem end zone, with Tad Quattlander (photo below, at right) carrying the ball over for the TD. But the Rockets had their problems after that, and even the heroics of Jason Hagelthorn (75) couldn't stop the victory-starved Rocks who proved they remain a serious threat to any would-be Western Lakes Conference title contender. Salem snapped the Rockets' win streak at three, and the Westlanders will have to regroup if they hope to get past a tough North Farmington club Saturday afternoon. N.F. is host to Coach Chuck Gordon and the Rockets. It also happens to be the Raiders first home game. ANP photos by Deanne DeYonker/staff photographer

Adrian cuts Eagles down

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Romulus learned the hard way that the more things change, the more they remain the same.

Coach Dan Henry and his Eagles, riding the crest of a four-game winning streak, were cut down to size by former South Central Conference football opponent, Adrian.

Adrian, apparently unimpressed by Romulus recent successes, built up a 21-0 half-time lead before coasting to a 42-7 victory over their ex-SCC foes.

"It just shows," Henry said afterward, "that we don't belong in that league. When we play schools of comparable size, we are competitive. We run up against an Adrian, Ann Arbor Pioneer and Ypsilanti, we have problems."

"It just isn't fair for the kids to be playing those bigger schools," Henry said. It was a mismatch all of the way. Romulus averted the shutout against Adrian in the last quarter when Eagle quarterback Bob Bergeron tossed a 31-yard touchdown pass to Joe Kusibab.

Jon Devereaux kicked the extra point.

Romulus will return home Friday night for an international encounter with Essex, Ont.

Will they be playing by Canadian rules?

"No," replied Henry. "Our agreement is that if we play here, we play by the American rules. Over there, we go by the Canadian rules."

The game against the Canadians has been designated as the Romulus homecoming game.

Belleville captures Wayne invitational

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Belleville turned in its best team performance of the 1991 cross country season Saturday to capture the Wayne Invitational title.

With four of Coach Dave Medley's runners finishing in the top sixth places, Belleville edged Taylor Center by four points to win the first-place trophy.

"We ran exceptionally well," said Medley. "All of the kids beat their best times, and I was extremely pleased to beat Taylor Center. They are a fine team."

Belleville finished on top of the final standings with 33 points, followed by Taylor Center (37), Romulus (84), Livonia Franklin (88), Wayne Memorial (118) and Taylor Truman (164).

However, the individual honors went to Taylor Center's Robert Bray, who held off Wayne's premier runner Aaron Simpson and Belleville's Jason Kidwell to win the gold.

Bray's winning time was 16:41, while Simpson toured the 5-kilometer course in 16:43, and Kidwell was clocked in 16:45.

Belleville also had the fourth-best runner in the field in Gary Knowlton (16:54). Teammates Troy Adams (16:57) and Dan Durham (17:01) finished fifth and sixth, respectively.

In the meantime, Westland John Glenn returned from its long trip north with the Alpena Invitational championship.

Coach Jess Shough's Rockets, who had 37 points, picked up the first place trophy by outdistancing a field that included Alpena (58), Charlevoix (80), Sault Ste. Marie (80) and Roger City (149).

Glenn's Jeff Tapper finished second overall with a 17:26. Scott Szukaitis was fifth (17:51), Mark Coleman, seventh (18:31), Bob Lulek, eighth (18:31), Jason Yanity, 15th (18:54), and Ryan Zantow, 24th (19:52) for the champions.

The top 25 finishers received medals.

In the women's division, Tina Moore, who finished fourth (22:36) and Brandie Flowers, who was ninth (25:25) led the Rockets to a third place finish. Sault Ste. Marie, with 22 points, dominated the meet, with Alpena in second place (63) and Glenn, third (67). Oscoda and Roger City didn't have a full contingent in the race.

Ailing Wayne awaits homecoming foe, Belleville

Zebras need a victory

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Hurting from back-to-back setbacks in the Wolverine 'A' Conference, Wayne Memorial will return home Friday to a homecoming crowd and the hope of snapping out of its doldrums.

Coach Chuck Howton may have a cure for his ailing Zebras in an ailing Belleville, a team that is desperately looking for its first Wolverine 'A' Conference football victory.

But the veteran Wayne coach isn't willing to bet on that.

"Belleville's record (1-3) is very deceptive," Howton warns. "They will be a challenge for us. They played a great game against Lincoln Park and last week gave Fordson a lot to think about before losing a 12-0 decision."

"No it isn't going to get any easier for us the rest of the way. We need to get points on the board and play defense," Howton stressed.

Wayne looked as if it was going to pull it out against the Railsplitters Friday night. After three scoreless quarters, the Zebras came alive and grabbed a 16-14 lead midway in the final stanza.

Wayne fullback Johnny Ballard hauled in a 10-yard scoring pass from quarterback Jason Wetmore to break the ice for the Zebras. Rick Barnes got the conversion.

Then, after a rare L.P. turnover, Wetmore engineered a 60-yard sustained drive that Ballard capped with a 2-yard TD plunge.

Tim Mate made the two-point conversion, and Wayne had successfully erased their deficit.

However, Wayne's lead was short-lived. Lincoln Park came back and scored two TDs in a 3 1/2 minute period, one thanks to an interception.

Wetmore, forced to the air ways because of L.P.'s stubborn defense, connected on 14 of 32 passes for 198 yards. However, he had three intercepted.

Wayne carries a 1-2 league and a 2-2 overall record into Friday night game.

Tigers have their problems

Belleville coach Sam Villa knows his secondary will be put to the test Friday night at Wayne.

"They like to throw a lot," said Villa after his Tigers fought a valiant, but losing 12-0 battle at Dearborn Fordson. "They have a capable QB (Jason Wetmore)", who we will have to stop.

"Also, Wayne's overall speed concerns us. They are fast," the third year Belleville coach said.

It's also Wayne's homecoming.

But Belleville will be ready, Villa said. He commended his team's efforts at Fordson, a team some pick to be the next Wolverine 'A' Conference champ.

Belleville held the Tractors scoreless the first half and managed to get inside the but couldn't so anything about it.

Quarterback Mike Komaromi had his problems as he connected for only two of seven passes for 40 yards. However, he also unleashed three interceptions.

Runningback Lee Bradford provided most of the Tigers' yardage. He rushed for 59 of the 109 total on 19 carries.

Marty Sacco, the Belleville middle linebacker, had an outstanding day as he accounted for nine tackles and picked off a pass. Darryl Montie also had an interception and seven solos.

Belleville's 6-6, 270-pound defensive tackle, Al Barnett, slapped away a couple of key passes and also forced Fordson to think twice before attempting to get through his side of the line.

Orchards produce fine crop

Area orchards have yielded a fine crop of apples for many uses this fall - apples for pies, cakes, salads, cider, apple-sauce and eating.

A celebration for the bumper crop will be staged this weekend in Huron Township when the 12th annual Huron Township Applefest is slated.

Fun, food and entertainment highlight the event, but the focus, of course, is on the apple - Jonathan, McIntosh, Red Delicious, Golden Delicious, Rome Beauties and Northern Spys.

At 10 a.m. Saturday, the best local cooks and bakers will be vying for top honors in competitions for the best apple pie, apple butter and apple jelly.

Good cooks know that each variety of apple has its own best uses, and they pass along some tips to help people select the proper apple for baking, use in salads or for munching fresh from the orchard.

Jonathans and McIntosh apples can be used for salads, pies, sauces, baked and eaten fresh, while Red Delicious are best eaten fresh or used in salads, apple experts say. Golden Delicious also can be used for many purposes, but should not be used for pies, they say.

Rome Beauties are best suited for pies and for baking as are Northern Spys.

When storing fresh-picked apples from local orchards, keep the fruit cool, growers advise.

Apples will stay fresh in a cool garage or basement for several weeks. When storing apples, cover them with a blanket or cardboard. To maintain the apples' freshness for the maximum amount of time, wrap each apple individually with newspaper.

When frozen, apples can be kept for months and still retain their fresh-picked taste. To freeze, apples should be sliced, peeled and cored and then soaked in lemon or pineapple juice to prevent discoloration. Drain, sprinkle a bit of sugar on them and store in freezer bags.
